AUBURN ARENA - HOME OF THE TIGERS

Auburn Arena is in its sixth season as home to Auburn basketball and gymnastics and its third for Auburn volleyball in 2015. With a seating capacity of 9,121, Auburn Arena officially opened on Oct. 16, 2010, and played host to Auburn volleyball for the first time in 2013.

In two seasons at the arena, Auburn volleyball has a 14-10 record on its home floor. Auburn's first volleyball match in the arena came on Sept. 20, 2013, when the Tigers dropped a five-set heartbreaker to nationally-ranked Florida State. The Tigers have also brought in the two biggest crowds in program history in the last two seasons: 2,474 vs. Arkansas (Nov. 7, 2014) and 1,810 vs. Alabama (Oct. 3, 2013).

The Auburn University Board of Trustees approved the building of the new $92.5 million Auburn Arena and Practice Facility on June 29, 2007. Auburn Arena includes over 29,000 square feet of student-athlete space, a two-court practice facility, coaches' offices, the Auburn University Athletic Ticket Office, an AU Team Store, the relocated Lovelace Museum, two food courts and many other amenities. Plans are in the works to add volleyball-specific offices, locker room, training room and team areas to the arena.

Designed by 360 Architecture out of Kansas City, Mo., the 243,792 square foot facility is northwest of Beard-Eaves Memorial Coliseum on Roosevelt Drive, across Donahue Dr. from Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Auburn Arena is an important recruiting tool for Auburn athletics. It features improved student-athlete facilities such as men's and women's locker room suites with sports medicine facilities, lounges and team meeting rooms. In addition to the two-court practice facility that will allow the men's and women's teams to practice simultaneously, a strength and conditioning center is an added bonus.

When it comes to seating in the Auburn Arena, fans are closer to the action than ever before. The arena features chairback seats along with bleacher seating for students. Better sight lines have fans closer to the court - the furthest seat is just 43 feet in elevation from court-side. Two-thirds of the seats in the facility are less than 27 feet in elevation from court-side.

Admission will continue to be free for volleyball matches at the Arena in 2015. Only the floor-level seating (sections A-N) will be available unless capacity dictates opening more seating. Fans may enter through the Scholarship entrance on the southeast corner of the Arena or at the student gates on the northwest corner. Concessions will be available at the Aubie Chow stand in the student lobby.

From 1986-2012, Auburn played the majority of its home matches in the Student Activities Center, where the team has amassed a 158-137 record since the program was reinstated. The complex, opened in the fall of 1984, enclosed 95,000 square feet of multiple-use, student-oriented facilities through the summer of 2013. The venue continues to serve as the Auburn volleyball practice facility.

Auburn played four matches in the Student Act in 2013, with the 295th and final match coming against No. 7 Missouri on Nov. 8, 2013.

During the summer of 2008, the floor of the Student Activities Center was refinished with a new paint scheme fresh for the upcoming season. The match floor was once again refinished and repainted in the summer of 2013. In addition, the facility featured state-of-the-art Daktronics scoreboards at each end of the court. The larger of the two scoreboards is capable of displaying up-to-the-second statistics as it is fully integrated with the scorekeeping program used to keep track of stats.

Four crowds of more than 1,000 fans have jammed the Student Act to watch the Tigers play. The largest crowd in facility history came Sept. 25, 2009, as 1,215 fans watched the Tigers face LSU. Two of the biggest crowds in program history came in the building's last three years. A total of 1,146 fans watched the Tigers defeat Alabama on Sept. 23, 2012. Exactly one year earlier, 1,037 were in attendance for another win over Alabama.

HEAD COACH

RICK NOLD

5th Year at Auburn • 14th Year as a Head Coach • Louisville '98

Record at Auburn: 60-61 (.496)

Career Record: 232-159 (.596)

@COACHRICKNOLD

Rick Nold is in his fifth season as Auburn's head volleyball coach in 2015 after being named the 10th head coach in program history on April 10, 2011.

In his four seasons on the Plains, Nold has put together a 60-61 overall record (.496). In 2014, he guided one of the nation's youngest lineups which routinely featured four freshmen and two sophomores to 13 wins. Nold picked up his 50th victory at Auburn on Sept. 7 against FGCU.

The Tigers finished 19-11 during the 2013 season, tying for sixth in the SEC with a 10-8 conference record. The 10 victories in SEC play were the most by the Tigers since 2010 and just the second time in the last 15 years that Auburn posted 10 wins in league action. Nold also guided the Tigers to their first-ever win over a top-10 opponent, knocking off No. 10 Nebraska, 3-1.

Nold is just the second Auburn coach in program history to have a record over .500 after his first three seasons since 1986. During his 13 years as a head coach, he has amassed 10 winning seasons.

His second season saw a six-match improvement from his first as he took the Tigers from an 11-19 mark (5-15 SEC) in 2011 to a 17-13 record (8-12 SEC) in 2012, the 18th winning season in 41 years of Auburn volleyball. He led the Tigers to nine straight wins to open the season, the second-longest winning streak in program history. Nold also picked up his 200th career head coaching victory on Nov. 4 with a 3-1 win over Georgia.

The 2012 season also saw senior outside hitter Sarah Bullock become the fifth player in Auburn history to record 1,000 career kills and 1,000 career digs. Bullock and junior Camila Jersonsky were named to the All-SEC Second Team following the season, and Jersonsky was a two-time selection as the SEC Defensive Player of the Week.

During his time at Auburn, Nold's players have re-written the Tigers' record book. Camila Jersonsky finished her career as Auburn's all-time leader in hitting percentage (.355), while also ranking in the top-10 in program history with 368 total blocks, 317 block assists, blocks per set and solo blocks. In 2013,

Under Nold's tutelage, Katherine Culwell and Sarah Wroblicky etched their names in the record book during the 2013 season as Culwell picked up her 1,000 career kill, while Wroblicky collected her 1,000 career dig.

Nold, 44, came to Auburn after directing Jacksonville State to unprecedented heights during his nine-year tenure, winning three regular season conference titles, three conference tournament titles and making three NCAA postseason appearances. He compiled an overall record of 172-98, while posting an impressive 107-42 (72 percent) mark in league games.

A three-time conference Coach of the Year, Nold led the Gamecocks to Ohio Valley Conference regular season or tournament title in four of the previous six seasons. He captured the OVC regular season in 2006, '07 and '09, while winning the conference tournament title in 2005, '06 and '09. Jacksonville State advanced to the NCAA Division I Tournament in 2005, '06 and '09 under Nold, the only NCAA postseason appearances in the program's history. In 2009, Nold led the program to another milestone, by winning the school's first NCAA Tournament match, defeating Florida A&M.

Nold's 2009 team finished the season 27-8, which was the most wins in program history, swept both conference titles and advanced to the NCAA second round. He was rewarded by being named the OVC Coach of the Year as well as the Midwest Region Coach of the Year by the American Volleyball Coaches Association.

In 2006, the Gamecocks were 24-5 overall and posted a perfect 18-0 mark in conference play, sweeping all but one conference match. At one time that season, JSU won 49 consecutive games, the longest active streak in the nation.

A 1998 graduate of the University of Louisville, Nold's teams not only excelled on the court, but also in the classroom. During his tenure, JSU had 46 volleyball players named to the OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll, eight OVC Academic Medal of Honor winners, one Academic All-American and a two-time OVC Female Athlete of the Year.

Nold came to Jacksonville State from his alma mater, where he spent six years on the Cardinals' staff, the last four as a full-time assistant whose duties included recruiting coordinator. During his time at Louisville, the Cardinals won four Conference USA titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament five times, advancing to the Sweet 16 in 1996 and 1998. He was the head coach of the 16-and-under and 18-and-under teams for the Kentucky Indiana Volleyball Academy in Louisville, where he coached teams that won the 1996, 1997, 1998 and 1999 AAU National Championships. His teams also earned Top 5 finishes at the USA Volleyball National Championships in 1997, 1998, 2000 and 2001. He also served as president of the Cheaha Juniors Volleyball Club program from 2002-03.

Nold began his coaching career as an assistant at Assumption High School in his hometown, where he helped the girls' varsity squad to three state championships and a 137-9 overall record before joining the University of Louisville staff in 1996. Nold served as an intern with USA Volleyball, where he assisted the women's national team in preparations for the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta. He received a bachelor's degree from Louisville in the spring of 1998 in Sports Administration.

He is a member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, the Association of Volleyball Professionals and USA Volleyball Impact Certified Coach. He also serves on the All-Region and All-America selections committees.

QUOTING NOLD...

"I'm really happy to come out of Knoxville with a win. I thought as the game went along, we got better and defensively. I thought (Sarah Wroblicky) did a great job of giving us a lot of second-chance opportunities. There are a number of areas where I thought we could get a little better, a little sharper, and we'll have to do that. But we're happy with a win on the road."

- Nold on Auburn's first-ever road win at Tennessee (Nov. 1, 2013)

"It's a huge win. Nebraska's got a great program. I thought we did a great job of staying really aggressive when we really weren't playing that well. I thought before the game that we have two very different styles facing each other, and that if we stuck to our style of being a scrappy, aggressive team, that would probably play in our favor. The girls never looked down and kept coming at them, and we got the win."

- Nold on Auburn's second-ever win over top-10 opponent (Aug. 31, 2013)

"This is a huge step for our program and really shows the direction we are headed," Nold said. "We feel fortunate that we were able to fill needs at every position with a very talented group that has already experienced so much success in their early careers."

- Nold on 2014 signing class

"What I get back from fans is, when they come to a volleyball match, it's an exciting sport," Nold says. "There is a lot of pace to it. Points are being scored. When we get people to come, they typically want to come back. Moving to the arena where we'll be right in the middle of a lot of student areas, I think we'll get more interest."

- Nold on Auburn Arena (June 26, 2013)

"I am honored and excited to lead the volleyball program at Auburn University," Nold said. "This is a wonderful opportunity, both personally and professionally, and I hope to build on the recent success the team has experienced. I want to thank Jay Jacobs, David Mines, Meredith Jenkins and the rest of the search committee for their support and confidence in me to represent Auburn and I look forward to competing for championships very soon with this group of hardworking young women."

- Nold introductory statement (April 10, 2011)

ASSISTANT COACHES

EYSHA
AMBLER

 @COACHEYSHA

Assistant Coach
5th Year at Auburn
Ozark, Ala.
Jacksonville State '01

Eysha Ambler begins her fifth season in 2015 as an assistant coach for the Auburn volleyball team. She serves as the Tigers' recruiting coordinator.

A former assistant under Nold at Jacksonville State from 2002-04, Ambler spent the previous two years as an assistant at the University of Pittsburgh.

While at Pittsburgh, Ambler worked primarily with the Panthers' middles and blockers. During her first season with the team, Pitt ranked 38th in the country in hitting percentage with a .247 mark. Ambler also mentored middle hitter Meagan Dooley, who became the program's third AVCA All-American.

A native of Ozark, Ala., Ambler also organized team travel, summer camps, managed the budget and monitored the academics and eligibility of the squad while at Pitt.

"I am excited to be coming back home to Alabama and for the opportunity to work under Coach Nold," said Ambler. "I learned a lot from him early in my career and I am looking forward to re-connecting with him. I am thrilled and blessed with this new opportunity and excited to help Auburn compete and win a championship."

Prior to Pitt, Ambler spent five years at Tennessee State, where she helped lead the Lady Tigers to a pair of Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) titles and the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance.

"I am very excited to bring Eysha to our staff," said Nold. "Eysha started her career under me and I have been following her career closely. When I got the job at Auburn, she was the first person on my list. She is a great recruiter, a hard worker and will be a valuable addition to our staff."

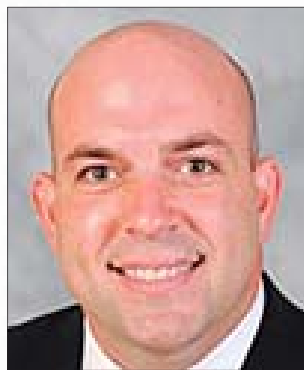

During her time at TSU, she also served as a recruiting coordinator and volleyball operations director. She was instrumental in aiding the students with their academic progress and helping them develop quality tutorial programs, while organizing and balancing the volleyball program budget.

Prior to TSU she spent two seasons at Jacksonville State as a graduate assistant. At JSU, she monitored the academic progress of student-athletes, organized travel and film exchange and managed home tournaments and match activities for the volleyball team.

Ambler played two years on the Jacksonville State volleyball squad after transferring from Northwest-Shoals Community College. At JSU she made her mark in the history books as the all-time single-season leader for blocks per game (1.7). She finished her career ranked fourth and seventh in block assists in a single season (92 and 72 respectively) and third in solo blocks (31) in a single season.

Ambler was the first three-sport letterman at Jacksonville State dating back to 1985, earning letters in basketball, track and field and volleyball. She graduated from JSU in 2001 with a B.S. in business management and later got her B.S. in education in 2004.

She has worked as the head coach the Pittsburgh Elite Volleyball Club (2009-11) and the Nashville One Volleyball Club (2008-09), while also serving as an assistant with Impact Volleyball Club (2008) in Nashville.

CHUCK
CRAWFORD

Assistant Coach
2nd Year at Auburn
Middletown, Ohio
Miami (Ohio) '01

Chuck Crawford is in his second season as an assistant on the Auburn staff after being hired on April 17, 2014 from Georgia Tech.

Crawford serves as Auburn's defensive coordinator during matches. He will also be in charge of scouting and assist with recruiting and skill development.

"I am incredibly grateful for the opportunity Rick and the Auburn Athletics family have afforded to my family and me," Crawford said. "Rick is first class in all he does. I look forward to learning all I can from Rick as well as being part of such a special university."

Crawford comes to Auburn from Georgia Tech, where he was an assistant for the Yellow Jackets for the 2013 season. While at Tech, he worked with the middle blockers and was the team's recruiting coordinator and director of camps.

He mentored middle blocker Chanell Clark-Bibbs - who earned a spot on the 2013 USA Volleyball Junior National Team - and two Academic All-ACC selections.

Prior to his one-year stint at Georgia Tech, Crawford was an assistant at his alma mater, Miami (Ohio), for two years (2011-12). With the RedHawks, he helped train three first-team All-MAC honorees, in addition to a CoSIDA Academic All-American. Crawford primarily worked with the hitters and oversaw all of the program's recruiting. His 2013 recruiting class earned 'High Honorable Mention' status by Prep Volleyball.

Before joining the RedHawks, Crawford spent a year and a half as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Jacksonville University. At JU, Crawford coordinated all recruiting along with team training, scouting, fundraising and practice planning. He helped middle blocker Alyssa Robertson earn Atlantic Sun All-Freshman team honors, outside hitter Aidan Yager earn a spot on the All-Atlantic Sun first team and recruited the 2012 Atlantic Sun freshman player of the year in Sammie Strausbaugh.

He also spent a year as a volunteer assistant at Georgia Tech in 2009, helping the Yellow Jackets to an NCAA Tournament bid after a five-year postseason absence.

He is a member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, having served on their national Assistant Coaches Committee, as well as United States Volleyball and the Southern Region Volleyball Association.

A native of Middletown, Ohio, he taught health, physical education and special education in Fulton and Forsyth counties (Ga.) for nearly 10 years and coached at Centennial High School (2001-04) and North Forsyth High School (2006-09) during that time.

Crawford earned his Bachelor of Science degree in health and physical education from Miami University in 2001. He was a four-year member of the RedHawks' club volleyball team.

Crawford and his wife, Lori, have three children: Carson, Drew and Ty. An avid rock and mountain climber, Crawford was featured in the Weather Channel TV series Epic Conditions climbing the nose of El Cap (3,300 feet) in Yosemite. He has also summited 14,400-foot Mount Rainer in Washington State and spent three years riding bulls in the Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association (PRCA).
